

PUT ORCHARD
ON THE RACKIn Attempt to Shake His Testimony at Boise

MORE CRIMES REVEALED

Strongest Assault on His Connection With Events Beginning With Explosion of Vindicator Mine—
Traffic With Other Side.

Boise, Idaho, June 8.—Counsel for Wm. D. Haywood continued their attack on the testimony of Harry Orchard at both sessions of the trial yesterday. They made their strongest assault on the witness's connection with events beginning with the explosion in the Vindicator mine and ending with the earlier meetings between him and the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners in Denver. To the extent that traffic with "the other side" in the war between labor and capital in Colorado discredited the witness.

More crimes, great and small, were added to Orchard's record. The Cripple Creek woman with whom he committed bigamy had three sons. Orchard stole high grade ore from a messmate; he stole two cases of powder from the Vindicator mine; he stole powder to make one of the bombs thrown into the Vindicator coal pile and he lied.

The defense endeavored in various ways to throw doubt and improbability around Orchard's whole Vindicator mine story and the alleged connection of W. F. Davis and William Eastley with the affair and the circumstances under which Orchard testified that he met Meyer and Haywood and was paid for his testimony.

They confronted Orchard with Eastley's confession that he paved the way for contradiction by the use of the story told by Orchard. Several times during the day they paved the way for contradiction of his testimony on material points.

BEAR TIES UP RAILROAD.

Scarcely Telegraphers Who Had Her Offspring.

Ogden, Utah, June 8.—A mother bear in quest of her young yesterday tied up the Kemmerer division of the Union Pacific Railroad system. The bear kept two operators at Bryan, Wyo., prisoners in their sleeping apartments for hours, while angry trainmen swore at having to stop at a place where stops are not scheduled. A newly arrived telegrapher foolishly invested in two one-half dollar bills of the mother who for days hunted high and low for her offspring. As a last hope she peeped into the bunk-house of the operators, who fortunately had seen her coming, and hastily had proceeded to bar the door which led into the station. Mother bear growled a fierce, but seemed content to wait, while the telegrapher told a great railroad might need the assistance of the operators in pushing trans-continental trains through.

A freight train crew not seeing the bear in place started to investigate. They found the operators waiting for the bear. The bear was in the hands of three hundred men, who were in work on the road a short distance, the other bear was driven off after having arranged the schedule of Mr. Harrison's railroad for hundreds of miles last and West.

FORAKER'S NAME HISSED
BY BUCKEYE DRUMMERSOrder to Mayor's Statement That He Should Be Next President.

Dayton, O., June 8.—Mayor Wright, in welcoming the convention of Ohio United Commercial Travelers yesterday, said that Senator Foraker should be the next president of the United States. Immediately there were hisses and many of the traveling men left the hall. When the mayor said that Foraker was one of the greatest statesmen of the country there were more hisses.

PRICE OF AN EAR $150.

Compromise in Dragon vs. Fitts Understood at That Figure.

Middlebury, June 8.—In addition equity court yesterday arguments were made in the case of George L. Beeman vs. Clinton W. Fitts by James B. Dunaway for the plaintiff and Ira H. LaPlante for the defendant. The jury rendered a verdict that the defendant was guilty of the negligence charged and gave the plaintiff $100 damages and his costs.

The next case for trial was that of George Dragon vs. Arthur Fitts, in which a compromise was reached and it was understood that the terms of settlement include a payment of $150 to Dragon by the defendant for the loss of Dragon's ear. No cases being ready for hearing yesterday afternoon the jury was excused until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon and at 2:45 o'clock the court took a recess until that time.

WILL PUSH KNOX BOOM
THROUGHOUT THE EASTFriends Think He Will Get Part of New York Delegation.

Washington, June 8.—Now that Senator Knox has received the endorsement of the Republican convention of Pennsylvania for president, his candidacy will be pushed actively in other states, according to Representative Henry Burd Cassel of the 9th Pennsylvania district, one of the prominent Republicans of the delegation, who was in Washington yesterday.

Mr. Cassel predicts that Senator Knox will get strong support in the east, including part of New York's vote, and also strength in New England, Delaware and perhaps New Jersey.

Taft is weakened, according to Mr. Cassel, because he stands for tariff revision, while Knox does not.

AMERICANS DROWN.

Victims of a Boating Accident on the Thames Thursday.

London, June 8.—Two Americans, G. Otto Elterich, who resided at Freeport, L. I., and whose place of business was in New York, and Mrs. E. M. McLean of New York, were drowned in the Thames near Cliveden Thursday afternoon while boating. Their bodies were taken to an inn and remained there unidentified over night.

It appears that Mr. Elterich and Mrs. McLean took a boat for Maidenhead Thursday afternoon and engaged a boat for a row on the Thames. A boat man overheard Mr. Elterich call his companion "Molly" and it was noticed that the former was not a skilled oarsman. He ran his boat against the roots of a tree and shouted to his companion.

"Jump! the boat is filling with water." They both jumped into the river and sank in ten feet of water. The body of Mrs. McLean was soon recovered, but that of Mr. Elterich was swept away and was not found until late in the afternoon. Among his effects at the Hotel Imperial were papers marked "Deliver to Henry Guinard in the event of my death." Mrs. McLean is believed to be a widow. The bodies are awaiting claimants.

GIVEN UP AS DYING,
DOCTOR LIVES 40 YEARSSaid to Have Cured Tuberculosis By Swallowing Crude Oil.

Chicago, June 8.—Forty years after two physicians had given him up as a hopeless victim of tuberculosis and had declared that his death was a matter of only a few hours, Dr. Marvin Chapin died this week at the age of 80.

Soon after he was pronounced beyond human aid he was given up as a victim of the oil fields of Ohio and he lived. It is asserted, in this connection, that he cured himself by swallowing crude oil.

Dr. Chapin came to this city in 1887 and taught a Presbyterian Sunday school class for twenty years.

A DEADLOCK AT ALBANY.

Two Branches at Odds Over Appointment.

Albany, N. Y., June 8.—For the first time in recent years the senate and assembly are in state of complete deadlock. Adjournment has been indefinitely postponed and the members of the assembly have gone home until Monday night. At that time they will pass their own appropriation bill and send it to the senate. After that the two bodies will appoint conference committees and new negotiations will take place, but the prospects of a long tie-up are bright. Senator Tully, chairman of the senate committee, said this morning: "I am sorry to say that the chances of the senate surrendering are about one to a hundred."

Governor Hughes has declined to enter into any negotiations with the assembly holding himself bound by his stand and acceptance of the senate plan. No one maintains that there is any superiority of the Wadsworth plan over the senate plan in any political or constitutional phase. The personal fortunes of the Wadsworths.

TURNS GODDARD DOWN.

St. Albans High School Wants 'Em to Get a Reputation.

St. Albans, June 8.—The claims of Goddard seminary to the Vermont preparatory school base hall championship have been observed with surprise by the St. Albans high school. Goddard seminary has evidently overlooked the fact that while they were beaten by Montpelier high school by a score of 3 to 2, St. Albans high school has not lost a game to a Vermont preparatory school this season, and has won two games with Montpelier by scores of 11 to 7 and 4 to 3.

The desire of Goddard seminary for a game with St. Albans at Burlington is not to be considered, for St. Albans already has the championship, and to play a game not previously scheduled would be a waste of time and money. That the seminary is not a match for St. Albans was shown clearly in the Montpelier high school games. Although nearly the end of the base ball season, the St. Albans high school is willing to defend its title against any team which has not been beaten by any preparatory school, and which has conformed to the rules set by the school-master's convention.

FELL ON LEWIS.

Williamstown Team Defeated Goddard
Seconds, 10 to 9.

The ball game on the seminary campus yesterday afternoon between the school's second team and Williamstown was very interesting up to the eighth inning when Williamstown landed on Lewis for ten hits, with a total of 14 bases, and in the last two chances at bat, scoring eight times and easily putting the game on ice by the score of 10 to 6. Little and N. Godfrey played the best game for the visitors and Wells, Keir and Shina did the stick work for Goddard, while Keir did good work in the field.

Goddard got ten hits off N. Godfrey and the visitors got 13 off Lewis. Errors were numerous, the seconds contributing eight and Williamstown six.

LACONIA AGAIN.

Stacks Up Against Barre-Montpelier at Intercity Park.

Barre-Montpelier meets Laconia again at the Intercity grounds this afternoon, and after the sharp game of yesterday there must be something interesting in store. Burlington also plays again at Manchester, where yesterday the Vermonters won, 8 to 5. Burlington has released catcher Galvin and left fielder Ward. The standing of the teams is as follows:

N. H. League Standing.
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Barre-Montpelier	13	3	.812
Burlington	9	7	.562
Manchester	8	8	.500

Of Docket in Caledonia County Court Yesterday.

St. Johnsbury, June 8.—Owing to the muddled condition of the docket caused by the unexpected settlement of cases, Caledonia county court yesterday had a brief session devoted to a discussion of the status of cases, took a recess until Monday afternoon.

The first verdict of the term was returned Thursday afternoon, when the jury brought in a verdict in the case of Lewis Flinders, apt. 4, Edwin J. Blodgett, for the defendant to recover his costs. This case has been on trial since Tuesday afternoon. The suit was brought to recover of E. J. Blodgett, of Lyndonville, the amount due upon two bills of exchange accepted by him in payment for a lot of jewelry purchased by him of the American Standard Jewelry Co., of Detroit, Mich. The whole lot of jewelry amounted to $180, but other acceptances to the amount of $120 had been paid, so the only amount involved in this case was $60. Lewis Flinders, a broker and owner of Detroit, accused title to these acceptances by indorsement from the American Standard Jewelry Co. Mr. Blodgett refused to pay these acceptances, so suit was brought by Mr. Flinders. Mr. Blodgett's defense in part was that the jewelry was worthless, and consequently that a fraud had been perpetrated upon him.

JUST IN TIMEGeorge Morgan Was Lying Unconscious on Track

That little George Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan of 94 Prospect street, was not mangled to death beneath the wheels of a Central Vermont train on the Williamstown branch yesterday afternoon was due to a rare intervention of providence. After the boy had fallen from the high bank to the railroad track he lay there in a semi-unconscious condition until some section men came along on a hand car. They saw the form of the lad lying across the track and removed it from the dangerous position just a short time afterwards. The Central Vermont train passed, and it is probable that but for the timely arrival of the section men the lad would have been killed.

His rescuers learned from some children nearby who the boy was and where he lived and they then carried him home a few rods away from the "cut" on Prospect street. Dr. O. G. Stickney was summoned. Blood was flowing from the boy's ears and it was at first thought that he had been perhaps fatally hurt. After considerable examination, however, the doctor discovered that the most serious injury was a fractured shoulder. The little fellow is resting comfortably this morning and will come out of the experience all right. He is six years old.
